Commander in Chief Boys in Blue.
DRAKE DELAY, Adjutant General.

Rumor from the Chicago Times.

CHICAGO, July 27.—The Times' Washington special says: While it is certain there will be no changes in the New York custom house, the reason for the rumors is becoming apparent to politicians here that the Grant wing had demanded the change in the president has either dropped or conceals the point, but Sherman had to be seen. Sherman in return for his consent, made the demand that he be continued as secretary of the treasury under Garfield, but the Grant people, who have been making numerous terms with Garfield have already secured a pledge that John Sherman and Carl Schurz shall not be continued as even members of the cabinet after the 4th of next March. This has had a deep seeing effect on any arrangements which Sherman is now anxious to make. The president referred the committee of prominent New York politicians to Sherman, who said 'Take me for another four years, and you can do what you like with Merritt.' The Grant people who run the republican machine, say the price is too high.

The "Ethel A. Merritt" Affair

PHILADELPHIA July 28.—The owners of the American schooner Ethel A. Merritt recently fired up in at sea by a war vessel supposed to be Spanish received a letter to day from the state department at Washington requesting further information with regard to the distance from the shore at which the firing took place. In reply the affidavits of Capt. Rand and the first mate Thomas Barr have been sent to Washington. The captain says:

I have been following the sea for about 25 years. For about 18 years I have been captain of a schooner and for about 9 years I have been making voyages to the West Indies, and am familiar with the southern coast of Cuba. I first saw the gunboat on the 26th of May. She was between us and the Cuban shore to-ward which I was heading to take advantage of the land breeze expected in the evening. Little to the windward, of course of which I was sailing. The vessels continued to approach other for about three quarters of an hour before the gunboat reached us. I am positive that at no time we were fired upon we were more than six miles from the Cuban coast. When the gunboat left us her course was toward the Eunice P. Newcomb which vessel was at least twelve miles from the shore when we reached the gunboat.

Thomas Barr following the sea for about seven years and sailing to the West Indies about August 10th, says: I have had read to me the affidavit of Capt. A. C. Rand, and the facts therein set forth are true. I believe Captain Rand has understated rather than overstated the distance the Ethel A. Merritt and Eunice P. Newcomb were from the Cuban shore when fired upon.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

Particulars of the Death of the Prince Imperial

LONDON July 8.—Brigadier General Sir Evelyn Wood who accompanied the Prince Imperial on the fatal reconnoissance has sent papers containing the details of the death of the prince imperial collected from independent narratives given by the attacking party numbered forty—twelve of whom followed the prince and eight being immediately concerned. In his death the Zulus having nearly surrounded the prince's party fired and rushed on them as they were mounting. The prince not having succeeded in mounting ran alongside of his horse until it broke away. The prince followed his horse in the donga and it being closely pressed by his pursuers he turned upon them in the words of the Zulus like a lion at bay being struck by an assegai in the side and left shoulder. He rushed at the nearest opponent, who fled. Another Zulu then fired at the prince when only ten yards from him. The prince fired his pistol and faced his rapidly increasing foes until meeting from his right and rear and was struck by another assegai. He regained the level on which he had first stood in the donga, where he was specially surrounded. He seized an assegai which had been thrown at him—in struggling with his terrined horse his sword had fallen from its scabbard—and thus defended himself against seven or eight Zulus who state that they did not dare close on him until he sank exhausted on his hips. The above facts were elicited from the Zulus who were examined separately on the scene of the attack.

GEN. BURROWS' DEFEAT.

Particulars of the Fight with the Cabulese--Desertion of Native Troops

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, July 28.—General Burrows' brigade was detached from the Candahar garrison to co operate with Sheru Ali. The British appointed a new caliph against Ayoob Khan aspirant to the throne and with considerable difficulty succeeded in getting toward Girishk his infantry deserted in a body, cut were pursued by General Burrows who recovered the guns and wagons they had carried off. Weakened by the desertion of Sheru Ali's infantry General Burrows effected a retrograde movement to Kushk Nakhel, between 2 miles east of Candahar. Ayoob Khans forces had reached Helmonde river above Girishek, and spies reported that he crossed the river at Hyderabad, and that 4000 Ghazis had joined him. While scarred of cavalry was foraging near the British camp.

It would seem as if the Indian government felt some misgiving with regard to General Burrows position. It was but a few days ago a telegram was published in which he was placed under orders for active service. The division comprises a battery of artillery one battalion of British and two regiments of native infantry and one regiment of native cavalry. By moving this force quickly to the front, the Queen and Candahar might have the benefit of his skilful generalship.

THE STATE V. CHADWICK.

ILLEGALLY DRAWN WARRANTS.

On this Count the Ex-Secretary Delinquent in the Great Sum of $12 87[illegible]

In the First Circuit Court for the County of Marion, State of Oregon.

State of Oregon vs. B. F. Chadwick, Aaron Rose, John Asher Marks, H. H. Smith.—No. 2072.—Action upon official bond.

Before Matthew P. Deady, Referee.

Dan Thompson and Addison C. Gibbs, for the Plaintiff.—B. F. Chadwick in propria persona, and for his co-defendants.

The referee having heard the allegations and proofs of the parties and the arguments of counsel, now finds and states the conclusions of fact herein as follows:

I. That at the general election held in June, 1870 the defendant B. F. Chadwick was duly elected secretary of state for the state of Oregon and that afterwards, to wit on July [illegible], the said defendant as principal, together with the other defendants herein, namely, Aaron Rose, Asher Marks and H. H. Smith, as sureties, executed and delivered to the plaintiff their certain bond in the penal sum of $10,000, as alleged in the complaint herein, to be void upon the performance, among others, of the following condition, to wit: that said Chadwick would "faithfully discharge the duties of his office as secretary of the state of Oregon, and also as auditor," which bond was afterwards, to-wit on July 7, 1874 duly deposited by said Chadwick together with his oath of office, in the executive office of said state and then and there duly approved by the governor thereof; and that afterwards, to wit on July 14, 1874, said Chadwick by virtue of the premises entered upon the said office as secretary of state and remains therein and performed the duties thereof until September 9, 1878;

II. That the defendant Chadwick during said period did not faithfully discharge the duties of his said office as secretary and auditor in this:

(1) That at divers and sundry times, he audited and allowed 57 different accounts, presented to him by the sheriffs of sundry counties in this state for mileage claimed to have been earned in conveying 57 insane persons to the asylum for the insane, amounting in the aggregate to $942 30 and drew his warrants upon the treasurer of state in favor of said sheriffs respectively, for various sums in payment of said accounts, amounting in the aggregate to the sum aforesaid, by means whereof the said sheriffs wrongfully obtained the same from the treasury of the plaintiff, as alleged in the complaint herein.

(a) That said accounts for mileage so audited and allowed were false and illegal, because there was then no law that gave a sheriff mileage as such for said services, and because in addition thereto the accounts for the actual expense of said services were at the same time presented to and audited and allowed by him audited and allowed, and warrants drawn upon the treasury therefor;

(2) That at divers and sundry times he audited and allowed 24 different accounts presented to him by the sheriffs of sundry counties in this state for mileage earned in conveying 24 convicts to the penitentiary, amounting in the aggregate to $3,37 50 and drew his warrants upon the treasurer of state in favor of said sheriffs, respectively, for various sums in payment of said amounts, amounting in the aggregate to the sum aforesaid, by means whereof he said sheriffs wrongfully obtained the same from the treasury of the plaintiff, as alleged in the complaint herein.

(a) That said last mentioned accounts for mileage, so audited and allowed, were false and illegal, because there was then no law that gave a sheriff mileage as such, for said services and because, in addition thereto the accounts for the actual expense of said services were at the same time presented to said secretary by said sheriffs and by him audited and allowed and warrants drawn upon the treasury therefor;

(3) That at divers and sundry times he audited and allowed three different accounts presented to him by the sheriffs of sundry counties in this state for per diem earned in conveying sundry convicts to the penitentiary and sundry persons to the asylum, amounting in the aggregate to $150 and drew his warrants upon the treasurer of state in favor of said sheriffs, respectively, for various sums in payment of said accounts amounting in the aggregate to the sum aforesaid, by means whereof the said sheriff wrongfully obtained the same from the treasury of the plaintiff, as alleged in the complaint herein.

(a) That said accounts for per diem were false and illegal, because they were for 30 days in excess of the time actually employed by said sheriffs in the performance of said service.

(4) That said divers and sundry times he audited and allowed 3 different accounts for expense of guards and other persons in conveying sundry convicts to the penitentiary amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $1,20 50, and drew his warrants upon the treasurer of state in favor of said sheriff, respectively, for various sums in payment of said accounts amounting in the aggregate to the sum aforesaid, by means whereof the said sheriffs wrongfully obtained the same from the treasury of the plaintiff, as alleged in the complaint herein.

(a) That said accounts were illegal because said secretary was not entitled to draw upon said treasury for said sum and for a greater sum than $4,000;

(5) That as to the other breaches of the condition of said bond alleged in the complaint herein the defendant B. F. Chadwick, as secretary of state, did faithfully discharge the duties of his said office and did not neglect, refuse or omit to perform any of the duties thereof.

And as conclusions of law from the premises the referee now finds and states the following:

That the defendant B. F. Chadwick did not faithfully keep the condition of his said bond in that and allowing the accounts for mileage and drawing his warrants on the treasurer therefor, to-wit:

For mileage in conveying 57 insane persons to the asylum	$ 942 30
For mileage in conveying 24 convicts to the penitentiary	337 50
For per diem in excess of the actual time employed	150 00
For expense of guards and deputies	1,20 50
Of that imposed	100 00
For salary of office assistant	300 00
For clerical hire in excess of the amount allowed by law	360 00
	$3,187 30

To the damage of the plaintiff in said sum of $12,887 30.

That by reason of the premises the plaintiff is entitled to recover of and from the defendants herein the sum of $1 000, the full penalty of said bond together with its legal costs and disbursements in this behalf incurred.

OPINION OF THE REFEREE.

The answer in this case, simply denies that the secretary did wrongfully audit and allow these several accounts as alleged in the complaint and avers that the same were presented and allowed in good faith.

Upon the trial it was admitted that the facts of the auditing and payment of these accounts as alleged in the complaint was not denied by the answer, and therefore it was treated as a demurrer to the complaint.

The secretary in auditing these accounts, though a ministerial officer, was acting judicially and therefore is not responsible for mere mistakes or errors of judgment as to the law or the facts, nor at all unless it is satisfactorily appears that he acted from willfulness, malice, or ruption or that his conduct was the result of gross negligence. In other words he is only responsible for good faith and ordinary care and competency. (See the opinion of the referee in The State vs. Chadwick et al., No 297., DAILY OREGONIAN, July 26, 1880.

As to the accounts for the salary of the assistant secretary and clerical aid, the reasons for the findings of concern ing similar accounts in that case apply in this as well as the suggestions concerning the relief which the secretary is or may be entitled to in such case.

The other question of importance in this case is—was a sheriff entitled to mileage in addition to his actual expense for conveying a convict or insane person after the passage of the act of October 24, 1874."

Up to that time a sheriff was entitled to charge mileage for himself and the convict or insane and the expense of guard and the hire and board of horse for each person conveyed.

Section 5 of the act of 1874 supra (See L. p. 125) provides that "The bill shall provide for conveying a convict to the penitentiary at delivering him to the proper officer if over three dollars a day for each day actually engaged besides necessary traveling expenses for himself and each convict, and the necessary expenses incurred in guarding such convict during such conveyance, to be paid out of the state treasury." Then follows a proviso prohibiting any allowance for guards between points where there is communication by railway or steamboat.

This act also repealed § 4 of the act of January 12, 1859 (Or. L. p. 647), prescribing the number of men for a day's travel and took effect from its passage.

But notwithstanding this, the secretary continued to allow the sheriffs mileage for themselves, convicts and guard, in addition to their "traveling expenses." As mileage is only a fixed sum allowed for traveling expenses," the result was that such expenses were allowed and paid twice—once actually and by name, and again constructively and under the name of mileage.

This result is so unreasonable, not to say unjust to the state that the secretary is not excusable for allowing the accounts for mileage, unless he was compelled to do so by some plain and express provision of law.

This authority relied upon for this double payment of 'traveling expenses' is § 14 of the act of October 24, 1864, (Or. L. p. 69a) which reads:

"Every officer or person whose fees are are scribed in this chapter who shall be required to to travel in order to execute or perform any public duty in addition to the fees hereinbefore prescribed, shall be entitled to mileage, at the rate of ten cents per mile, in going to and returning from the place where the service is performed."

The word "chapter" as it occurs in this section is the substitute of the compiler for the word "act" in the original. Read then, as it must be for the purposes of this inquiry—"Every officer or person whose fees are prescribed in this act—that is, the act of October 24 1864—it is clear that it does not apply to any officer whose fees are not prescribed by that act.

The act of 1864, relates solely to the fees of clerks and sheriffs. It is entitled "an act to repeal certain acts and sections of acts therein named relating to the fees of these officers, "and to prescribe the fees of clerks and sheriffs."

Section 4 of the act of 1864, prescribed the fees of sheriffs, but the act of October 29 1870, Sess. L. p. 72) undertook to substitute § 3 of 1870 for such section with all specially repealing it or purporting to amend it, but the act of October 28, 1872, (Ses. L. p. 74) expressly repealed both said sections 3 and 4 and amended and re-enacted the latter. Section 4 of the act of 1864 may then be considered as in force in some form and as prescribing the fees of sheriffs until the passage of the act of 1874. In that view of the matter the word "chapter" was, as a matter of convenience substituted in the compilation for "act."

But the act of 1874 expressly repeals said § 4 and does not re-enact it. It is a new, distinct and independent act containing ten sections—two of which are taken up with reasons one with the emergency clause, while the seven others are devoted to the matter of fees of clerks and sheriffs, the fifth of which prescribes the fees or compensation of sheriffs for conveying a convict to the penitentiary.

The allowance of this mileage cannot then be justified by said § 14 because the fees of sheriffs during the period covered by the complaint herein are not prescribed by the act of 1864, but that of 1874.

The fact that by the act of October 26 1876 (Sess. L. p. 24) § 14 supra was amended so as to except sheriffs from its operation and to confine other persons whose fees are prescribed "in this chapter" does not affect the question for the fees of sheriffs are not there prescribed by chapter 1 of the Miscellaneous par had they been since the passage of the act of 1874.

Neither do I think that said § 14 ever applied to the question of conveying convicts to the penitentiary. The compensation pre cribed by the act 1854 (§ 1) for such service consisted of a per diem, and the word "expenses" in the section does not 'ean in the primary sense of that word, nor in the conveying of a convict, which consists in traveling to the penitentiary and back as service is performed at a particular place to which the sheriff goes for that purpose—as the serving of a summons or other process and for which a specific fee" is a fowed.

But the controlling argument upon this point is derived from the fact that § 4 of the act of 1874—the very part of such act which prescribes the fees of sheriffs—contained a specific provision for the sheriff mileage when engaged in conveying a convict. Now if this mileage was a fee prescribed by the act within the meaning of § 14 then the sheriff would get double mileage for his services—once under § 14 as a fee and once under § 14 as mileage. Such never was the intention or purpose of the act of 1864 and no one ever claimed such a construction for it. But now that § 4 is repealed and the fees of sheriffs are no longer prescribed by the act of 1864 there is no ground for claiming that § 14 is applicable to the compensation of conveying a convict.

There being, then no plain and specific provision of law regulating the payment of mileage to sheriffs in such cases and the manifest impropriety of allowing payment being had to them double pay for traveling expenses, while the act of 1874 which purports and was enacted to regulate the fees and perquisites of sheriffs expressly repealed § 4 of the act of 1864, giving mileage in such cases, and substituted actual expenses therefor, I am unable to discover any reasonable or plausible ground upon which the secretary could have proceeded in allowing these sheriffs mileage in addition to the "necessary traveling expenses" and fixed fees. Such assembly oversight and error in doing it was negligently and without sufficient care. This being so, his responsible for his damage suffered by the plaintiff in consequence of this default, in respect to faithfully keeping the condition of his bond.

The new fact (Or. L. p. 65) having provided that a sheriff shall receive the same fees and compensation for conveying convicts to the asylum as for conveying convicts to the penitentiary, I follow that the allowances by the secretary of mileage for conveying the former were illegal as well as wholly unreasonable.

It is suggested that there was any doubt as to the question of right or law involved in the matter of allowing the mileage then the secretary in having the good faith exercised his judgment in the premises, would not be responsible for the consequences even though it should turn out that

FINANCIAL ONSISTS

There is a piece of history in regard to the management of national finances which though something of an old story may convey in occasional ly as profitable an instruction as reading It may all be summed up in the assertion that the republican party took charge of the national government when its credit had been run down by democratic mismanagement conspiracy and rebellion till six per cent bonds sold at twelve per cent discount—though there was then less than one hundred millions of national debt—an has held it until its four per cent bonds with a national debt of two thousand millions was the result of the confederate democratic rebellion, sell at nine cents premium Here is a text full of meaning to all the substantial interests of the country Observe not that the republican party took charge of the government when fully one third of the states were in actual rebellion against it and that it had to contend with difficulties greater than ever before beset a popular government Nevertheless it held on till it had roughly down treason and conquered every vestige of antagonism to national authority Now again the party that got the country into these sore straits, reinforced and led by those who were in rebellion against it asks to be trusted with the power it abused and with the direction of the government which it abandoned as a wreck twenty years ago

A statement of the condition in which the democratic party left the government, given a little more in detail will not be amiss About the close of the year 1860 or near the last of Buchanan s administration when the southern democracy were engaged in the great conspiracy to destroy the government and the northern democracy were either encouraging the proceeding or looking helplessly on the administration found it necessary to borrow money to pay the ordinary expenses of the government There had been no war but the funds in the treasury had been wasted by profligacy similar to that practiced in the 'organized offices of Oregon a few years ago and as the treasury was empty the government went into the market and tried to sell its bonds Authority of congress had been obtained by the act of December 17 1860 Under this act loans were secured at the following rate viz $70,200 a 6 per cent $300 at 7 per cent $10 000 at 9½ per cent $823 000 at 10½ per cent $3 500 at 8 per cent $160 000 at 9½ per cent $1,367 000 at 10½ per cent $33 000 at 8½ per cent $77, 000 at 9½ per cent $1 432,700 at 11 per cent $10 000 at 8½ per cent $1 027 500 a 10 per cent , $4 840 000 at 12 per cent —making a total of $10 010 900 Observe at how steadily a rate the interest went up Additional offers were received ranging from 15 to 36 per cent but were declined As this was a bond which had only one year to run, it was thought that a long bond might sell better so congress on the 8th February 1861, authorized a loan of $25 000 000 at 6 per cent. having twenty years to run and this bond was offered in the market.

At the present time when the government offers three hundred millions of four per cents they are taken with a rush go at a premium and the people can't get enough of them But this loan of $25 000 000 to meet the deficiencies of our last democratic national administration and to help it out of its difficulties, halted and lagged only $18 415 000 of it was taken, and this went at an average rate of 89-10 Nobody would subscribe for the balance and it was never taken So low had the credit of the government fallen under the management of the party that now again asks to be entrusted with it that Buchanan s secretary actually suggested to congress as a financial resource that the several states be asked as security for the repayment of any loan which the general government might need! This most shameful record is part of the history of the country The suggestion that the states be asked to indorse for the national government was fully in accord with the confederate democratic idea that the states are above the nation, and the party still holds to it as a cardinal principle It is on this ground that it now fights the national election laws

Take now for comparison or contrast the superb condition of the national finances under an administration of the government on national principles as against the state sovereignty administration of the democratic confederate party Turn to the last page of his paper and note the premium at which government bonds bearing the lowest rate of interest ever known in America are quoted Government now could borrow one thousand millions at four per cent. on three weeks' notice. Since the war the great debt resulting from it has been undergoing steady reduction, so that of the principal the sum of $837,104,823 00 has been canceled while the annual interest charge is $71,343 16 less than at the close of the war Could there be a more remarkable contrast than that seen between this result and that of democratic management as shown in the fact that in 1861 government six per cents were sold at 8 10 while in 1860 government was actually compelled to pay 12 per cent for money borrowed to pay current expenses and the secretary of the treasury was begging the states to indorse the bonds of the national government" Even now the democratic party is the champion of abettor of every false theory of finance and every scheme of inflation and the republican party has been fighting it on that issue chiefly for a dozen years or more In no respect is the contrast between the parties sharper than in the widely opposite results of their financial management Not long since Secretary Sherman made an arrangement for refunding at 3½ per cent at par value these same six per cent bonds of Buchanan s time which sold at 89 10, and which people were so afraid of at this rate that out of $25 000 000 offered they would take only $18 415 000 making it necessary to withdraw the balance of the loan

THE FINDINGS AGAINST MR. CHADWICK

THE OREGONIAN has no disposition to deal with the late secretary of state in a harsh and vindictive manner Mr Chadwick is now a fallen man No one now can longer pretend that he administered his office with careful and honest regard for the good of the state It has been shown by proof from which there is no appeal that he drew illegal warrants to large amounts The money thus illegally drawn from the treasury has been wasted and lost to the state The total amount exceeds seventy thousand dollars of his bonds and the sureties never can fully recover it In the findings and opinion of Judge Deady as referee in the principal suit against Chadwick a report on which we print to-day the public will find a substantial affirmation of the conclusions of the legislative committee of investigation, published a year and a half ago

This brought a matter for any more decisive action Whatever spirit Chadwick may have had to attack and when the occasion arose to defend himself he made no defense to report with defiance then and he exhibited what was remarkable and accusation aroused friend and enemy alike all in order But now that the case must finally be examined becoming to use a different language There is a moral to be drawn from the proven profligacy of the administration

It is probable may be taken this impression was due primarily to an easy complaisance with which was desirous of having good to everybody with whom the public had relations in order to conciliate and gain political support Gov Grover wanted to be elected to the senate Secretary Chadwick was willing to help him and as he knew there were two seats he had an eye that way himself Official position and the revenues of the state were used to secure the coveted support sometimes to gain it openly and at other times to silence opposition The whole current of official administration was turned in the direction of party politics and personal ambition The offices were not administered as a trust but used as a means of partisan machination and personal advancement No wonder such an administration cost the state a great sum The people may now see clearly how the revenues were wasted The accumulation of debt is no longer a mystery nor is there any further reason for surprise that a special tax hitherto unknown became necessary to meet the public obligations Of course in every case of this kind the amounts that can be run down traced out and brought clearly into light are but a small part of the actual waste of public funds.

It is not necessary at this time to add more to the request that the case against Mr Chadwick as presented to day be carefully read and considered Judge Deady has been thoroughly moderate and impartial on every point not clearly established he has declined to find against the defendant and he closes with the remark known to note a few to be an utterance of feelings laid in foundations established many years ago that he has reached his conclusions reluctantly and with regret. But othe conclusions were impossible

The railroad earnings of the United States for the first six months of this year show an increase over their earnings for the first half of 1879 of twenty five per cent Nothing could give a more convincing proof of the advance which the country is making than such a statement The rates are no higher than last year yet the business has increased twenty five per cent The simple statement of the fact means that new looms are running new acres have been brought under the plow, new stamps are thundering in the mountains 400 000 or 500,000 more men are at work than there were a year ago There is but one cloud upon the face of the beautiful picture If the railroads have earned twenty five per cent more they have gained in power a corresponding degree and already they have more power than any other interest in the country It is hardly too much to say that they have more than congress itself Of course this remark applies chiefly to the great lines which do the bulk of the business of the country and are controlled by only about a half dozen men But no country can do without railroads, and though our country is often spoken of as being under the tentacles of the railway monster,' it is quite an absurd figure as this monster instead of absorbing the life of the country as some foolishly assert, only develops its vital powers We of the Pacific northwest have long been wishing that these dreadful tentacles were folded around us, and when they are our boom of prosperity will begin

In the southern states men running as republican candidates are spoken of as public enemies" The Globe Democrat says A republican was nominated for congress the other day in a strong republican district in Alabama, and it was the unanimous opinion among democrats that his candidacy would 'make trouble' He took the hint and resigned Judge Chisholm was continually making trouble,' and the Alabama candidate knew what was in store for him unless he resigned Dixon 'made trouble at Yazoo and his fate was also a warning A like thing took place in Texas the other day A man named Bissell who had lived in the state three years was making trouble by delivering speeches in which he advised those who heard him not to vote democratic He was told that the people of Texas would have no Yankees interfering in their affairs" and if he didn't want to follow Santee (a republican who had been assassinated for a like offense) he would do well to leave the country" He prudently acted upon the hint It is believed that no republican will dare to commit the heinous crime of free speech again anywhere in Texas

General Grant s order to the boys in blue to save the country from the democratic party naturally produces a commotion in the democratic camp The spokesmen of that party had been fraudulently asserting that the ex-soldiers would vote for Hancock and now this appeal to them from General Grant comes like one of the orders of former years to advance on the confederate works General Grant is the one man who can properly make such an appeal As he was the leader who saved the country from the democratic party on a former occasion, when the active strength of that party was in arms against us, so now it is fit that he should make this appeal to his old companions to sustain the principles involved in that contest General Hancock is a soldier but if the country wants the advice of a soldier on national issues it will be disposed to take that of the soldier who stands as the first representative of those national principles which triumphed in the great struggle

No democratic paper in the state has yet informed the public of the findings of Judge Deady in regard to the official acts of Secretary Chadwick late secretary of state From this the public will learn nothing of his heavy delinquencies and peculations But for the matter there is not a democratic paper in the state to which the public ever looks for information on any subject there is not one of which has any news or is conducted for anything else than very narrowest party purposes For this reason they get no circulation It is to the market by intelligent democrats that such papers are to depend for support and influence or can answer the purposes of a newspaper

The Indianapolis Journal says that Secretary Dalzell a paper of Pittsburgh in the fall of 1860 said William H Seward was the man for President and that the Democratic party would be defeated by any other administration but that Hancock would be the only Democrat who could unite the party and that if he was elected he would be overwhelmed by the Republicans

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING JULY 29 1880

CITY.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION.—Our special correspondent writing from Brownsville under date of the 7th says The preliminary examination of G W Goodman for the shooting of Dick Warren was held be or Judge Averill The prosecution was conducted by Mr Blackburn assisted by Messrs Powell and Bilyeu the defense by Capt Humphrey The examination occupied most of yesterday, and to day The testimony was quite conflicting The jury decided to hold Goodman and fixed his bonds at $750 which in default whether he can furnish the required security Warren is yet alive but in a hopeless condition D C H Hall of Salem was summoned by telegraph and took her with Dr Crawford made an examination of the wounded man but found no new symptoms The bonding over of Goodman is very generally approved There are a few young men in this community who ought to take heed in their downward course The presence of such characters as these principals in this affair in any neighborhood ought to be regarded as a public calamity

HOW THE LIGHT WORKED.—Mr J C Henderson one of engineer of the steam ship China authorizes the following statement in regard to Edison's electric light as employed on that vessel in her passage from New York to Portland The light as put in the ship at that time is doing service of perfect satisfaction and came up to all expectations Exhibitions made at Rio Janeiro and Valparaiso attracted much notice At sea in all kinds of weather the vibrations jars and general working of the steamship in a sea way did not interfere with its working and in fact made no impression upon it When required the simple opening of a steam valve in all that is necessary to light up the lamps instantly and the ordinary skill of the engine room is perfectly sufficient to keep the lights in running order The breakage was very slight and due entirely to want of practice in handling The utility of the light also for examination of propellers rudders dock gates or other sub-marine work I think invaluable

FARROW'S SCOUTING PARTY.—The following order has been issued to Lieut E S Farrow by General Howard Lieutenant Farrow himself will go with the Indian scouts via the Umatilla agency and, obtaining a mount for his scouts reach Wallula as soon as possible, Meanwhile the remainder of the detachment will be put into camp back of Wallula at the most available camping ground One of the officers will be sent to Fort Walla Walla, get such horses and equipments as he long to detachment, and such stores as may be essential and, return with them to Wallula If it is possible the department commander wishes the command to be ready for his inspection by Saturday evening next on his arrival at Wallula then proceed with him by steamer to Lewiston and Lapwai Lieutenant Farrow is authorized from this date to draw upon any post commander for such supplies as may be necessary for his command."

DEMURRER SUSTAINED.—In the state circuit court yesterday morning Messrs Durham & Thompson counsel for William H Watkinds in the case in which he is charged with illegal voting, filed a demurrer to the indictment The demurrer read as follows 'Now comes the defendant, William H Watkinds by Durham & Thompson, his attorneys and demurs to the indictment, for the reason 1st, that said indictment does not conform substantially to the requirements of chapter VIII of the criminal code of this state, 2d that the facts stated do not constitute a crime' After the reading of the demurrer District Attorney Cagles arose and moved the court that the same be sustained, as, in his opinion the demurrer was well taken Judge Stott there upon quashed the indictment, and the defendant Mr Watkinds was permitted to go hence without day"

STRUCK ON THE HEAD.—Thos J Johnston the well known plumber, met with a very painful accident yesterday morning He was engaged in making some repairs at the bottom of a deep well near Jaffray's brick yard when a small iron tongs, weighing some eight pounds fell from the top, and coming rattling down, struck Johnston on the head He heard the tongs coming and endeavored to escape, but was unsuccessful The distance was about 40 feet The tongs cut a severe gash in the scalp He was hoisted to the top in an unconscious condition and covered with blood He was conveyed to Good Samaritan Hospital and Dr W H Saylor happening to be there, dressed the wound and restored Johnston to consciousness The injury, although painful, is not considered dangerous, and Johnston will soon be out again

RESTING ON THEIR ARMS.—There seems to be a temporary suspension of hostilities between Knott Bros and the Jefferson Street Ferry Company At present the Vesta is moored tranquilly at the foot of Jefferson street where she will probably remain until the controversy is settled by the courts There is no end to litigation in this question of the right of the Jefferson Street Ferry Company to run a boat and of Knott Bros to drive piles at the foot of U street Something less than a dozen suits are now pending in the state circuit court in the way of restraining orders, writs of review, injunction etc Saturday, some of these questions will be passed upon by the court.

THE SISTERS HOSPITAL.—The Astorian says "The Sisters of Charity have taken possession of the property lately purchased from Mr Geo W Hume for a hospital and they will be ready to receive patients by the middle of next month. The building and grounds are well located for the pupose and we doubt not that many invalids from the interior will be glad to avail themselves of the advantages and benefits such an institution offers, where they will receive the very best of medical treatment and care combined with the well known bracing effect of a healthy sea breeze."

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—Some time ago a Mr Spencer fell down a flight of stairs in a house owned by Mr Fleidner the barber sustaining severe injuries For this Spencer brought a suit against Fleidner claiming $5 200 damages The cause was tried in the state circuit court on Tuesday After a short deliberation the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1 which of course will throw the plaintiff in for the costs The court allowed the plaintiff until Friday to file a motion for a new trial

GARFIELD AND ARTHUR CLUB.—Good Templar Hall was crowded last night with enthusiastic republicans, and quite a number of ladies who listened to an effective speech from Hon J W Watts. The speaker reviewed at length the history of the democratic party paying particular attention to its platforms from 18,8 down to 1880 and showed the party up in its colors not at all flattering The speech was delivered with Dr Watts well known force and was loudly applauded throughout.

COUNTY COURT.—The county court for Multnomah will convene next Monday Among other business to be transacted the matter of constructing a fire and burglar proof vault in which are to be stored the books and papers of the county clerk will be discussed when the plans which have been submitted will probably be adopted The question of making some material change in the management of the county poor farm will also be discussed

WRIT OF EXAMINATION.—A few days since the case of the state of Oregon vs H C Page who was arrested a little two weeks since charged with robbing Wells Fargo & Co's treasure box was called at the District Court room and the usual expressions Exhibitions made at Rio Janeiro and Valparaiso attracted much notice At sea in all kinds of weather the vibrations jars and general working of the steamship in a sea way did not interfere with its working and in fact made no impression upon it When required the simple opening of a steam valve in all that is necessary to light up the lamps instantly and the ordinary skill of the engine room is perfectly sufficient to keep the lights in running order The breakage was very slight and due entirely to want of practice in handling The utility of the light also for examination of propellers rudders dock gates or other sub-marine work I think invaluable

RENOVATION.—Since Sheriff Buchtel entered upon the duties of his office renovation seems to be his motto The county jail is now being subjected to a thorough cleaning and will be rendered as bright and cheerful as possible for the inmates Yesterday the beds and bedding were washed and gathered about the jail yard to dry He is determined to enforce cleanliness among the prisoners and observe every public sanitary precaution

STATE OF TRADE.—Business continues to arrive at Astoria by every boat from up the river She took on board 1 600 centals of wheat which left Portland on Friday The steamer Lurline left San Francisco last Wednesday morning with [illegible]

STRUCK BY AN OAR.—On the Upper Scappoose who was run, ended up the chief of the Lappuss was sentenced in the Justice's Court to Assessment upon by the board of the Equalization for the year 1880 [illegible]

CERTAIN OMISSIONS

PORTLAND, July 28 1880

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Your correspondent 'Linn County' expresses his surprise in his morning's paper that Judge Deady, in his investigation of the accounts of the state officers, has made certain omissions among others the following

Not a syllable appears in Judge Deady's review of the Gestor allowance of $1000 or $1500 I think for defending the title to about $1500 worth of his own land And in this connection was earnestly commented on in the investigating committee's report. Why does it not appear in the suits?

I shall not attempt to excuse Judge Deady for his great delinquency in this matter but I can inform your correspondent that neither the state or any of its officers ever paid Gestor "$1000 or $1500" or any other sum whatever, for defending the title to his own land And if Linn County had read the Linn county papers during the late political campaign he would not have made the above statement

The state board of land commissioners did authorize me to incur certain expenses in defending the states title to its lands which expenses I did incur and pay in gold coin but the state has never repaid the same to me or any part thereof which fact doubtless explains the extraordinary conduct of the attorneys for the state in not suing people for money they have never received.

BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH

An Unequaled Demonstration

Special to Chicago Tribune 14th]
INDIANAPOLIS July 14—The demonstration to-day and to night in honor of the arrival of Hon Albert G Porter republican candidate for governor was unequaled in the history of politics in Indiana, and is such a source of inspiration and courage to members of the party that it appears easy to predict from it the success of the ticket at the polls in October Certainly the republican party never enjoyed such an auspicious opening of a campaign

Justice Swayne on Garfield

NEW YORK July 23—The Tribune prints a special from Sharon Springs which says that Justice Swayne of the United States supreme court has stated that he never gave an opinion condemning General Garfield but on the contrary has the highest confidence in his integrity He says "I never wrote a word of what is attributed to me I never knew anything of the facts of the matter charged against General Garfield and it was certainly never in any shape before the supreme court I had therefore neither the occasion nor the opportunity to express any judicial opinion on the subject It is not stated where any case in which General Garfield was concerned is reported My confident impression is that I never heard of such a case before General Garfield is a personal friend of mine and I have the highest confidence in his integrity The statements in the World are an entire fabrication, and without a particle of truth to sustain them" In order that there might be no possible mistake in reporting his words Justice Swayne himself wrote out the above denial

Hayes to Speak for Garfield

WASHINGTON July 21.—The president was approached yesterday by members of the republican congressional campaign committee with a request that he make several speeches during his visit to the extreme west especially in California, in behalf of the republican presidential ticket. The president said that as it was thought that a word or so from him would do good he had no hesitancy in saying that he would be prepared to correspond in behalf of the republican nominees. He would prepare himself for that work as a part of his western trip

Thompson After Hancock.

DENVER, Col, July 21.—Hon R W Thompson, secretary of the navy, delivered a speech here last night He read a letter of Gen. Hancock's, written to S T Glover of St. Louis July 17, 1868 indorsing the platform and candidates of that year which platform declared all constitutional amendments, enfranchisement of negroes, and work of reconstruction null and void The letter also indorsed Frank Blair's letter to Broadhead, advocating the sending of the army south to undo the work of reconstruction Thompson said Hancock was sent south by Andy Johnson to nullify the acts of congress, and his order No 40 was intended to put the rebels on top and loyal men at the bottom Grant refused to permit that order to be executed, and Hancock left New Orleans in a "miff"

Ohio and Indiana.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Ben Butterworth arrived at the capital to-day. He is in high spirits. He says that he has never known the prospects so bright for the republicans in Ohio He declares that the ranks are closed up and that Garfield's majority will not be less than 25 000, with a gain of five congressmen He has seen many Indianians lately and they all declare the state to be safe

Chairman Jewell's Confidence.

NEW YORK July 18.—Chairman Jewell on his return from Mentor, says the enthusiasm for Garfield in Ohio is remarkable He had met many Pennsylvanians and the talk about that being a Hancock state was laughable There would be no half-way measures Mr Jewell said nor would the south be sacrificed The organization would be maintained vigorously in every state there and full state tickets would be run Mr Jewell said he was sure the republicans would carry Connecticut, and he believed Garfield and Arthur would carry every northern state No half hearted work would be done in New York but the campaign here would be of the liveliest character Unity and hard work would certainly win the day

Advices by mail from San Francisco, report a somewhat improved condition in financial matters, but a very large amount of surplus capital is still idle, nor do holders appear anxious to invest, but seem to be waiting for a more general revival of business activity, which is to create a greater demand and enable money to command better security and higher rates of interest.

Local finances are moving along in the accustomed channels borrowers who are able to proffer the requisite security finding no difficulty in securing needed accommodation at 10@12 per cent per annum according to amount and time. The paper cantile community at this time are making but few demands on the market while real estate loans are not large in the aggregate. The utmost quiet prevails in the breadstuffs market, nor is much life expected to be manifested until the new wheat crop begins to come forward, which will not occur for ten days or a fortnight The markets abroad as will be seen by our dispatches, are essentially unchanged, buyers and sellers nearly everywhere appearing to be laboring under an uncertainty Receipts both of wheat and flour at this point during the 24 hours ending at noon to-day, were unusually small as they were of nearly all other articles of domestic produce Wheat quotations are almost entirely nominal at $1 35@1 40 per cental the few small lots coming to hand, being Walla Walla not sufficient in quantity to fix prices. Flour is in fair supply and held at $5 per bbl for standard brands in jobbing lots, though round lots might be obtained at some commission on this figure

Receipts of wool were about 45 000 pounds about equally of Eastern Oregon and valley Prices have a considerable range there being a fair demand for choice and extra choice while inferior grades find slow sale. A transaction is reported in which 9000 lbs of choice valley changed hands at 30c which is the top of the market while the range is down to 18c, which is about as low as any worth shipping can be had

Provisions, dairy products etc are not coming forward in much volume and prices, though not higher are firm Domestic exports are very light.

The question of the prices for grain sacks for the coming season is one now attracting a good deal of attention owing to combinations formed in San Francisco to control the trade of this coast and which are likely to force prices up the first turn to be given the screws on next Monday and to be followed regularly thereafter probably as long as buyers will stand it.

Tonnage

Shipowners complained last season that the average charters were too low from the Pacific coast, and that the supply of tonnage this year would be short Rates at present are considered remunerative being 58@70s. for iron vessels The following vessels are now reported on the way to this port the dates of sailing of some of them not being known positively are not given

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]
NEW YORK, July 28.—There is no change to note in the freight market via Cape Horn Rates are still irregular at about the following quotations Weight 70@8 per ton measurement, 70@70c per foot nails 28c per keg whisky $1 ⅝@2 per bbl cement and plaster 65@75c per bbl rosin, 70@75c per bbl canned goods ¾@20c per case, oil in bbl 2½@27½c in bbls $1 75@2c coal $5 50@8 per ton pig iron $5 per ton These are fair asking rates but would no doubt be shaded for any respectable sized shipments

Tonnage not so plenty as grain rates have advanced and ships are accepting business to Great Britain and the continent in preference to long voyages The only engagement for the California trade is the Joseph S Spinney 1388 tons to load at this port with a general cargo

Market generally fairly active prices steady
Breadstuffs—More steady under large receipts

DOCTORS GAVE HIM UP.

Is it possible that Mr Godfrey is up and at work, and running as merrily as ever?

"I assure you it is true that he was entirely cured and I can do nothing but praise and only ten days ago he was doubled up in bed and said he must die"

"Well, sir, I must say I am glad of this, minus the praise for my part for I know how it is myself"

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure, sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax, the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull heavy sensation in the back part There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone some thing which ought to have been done A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility, he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low, and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

The genuine are never sugar coated Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C McLANE and FLEMING Bros on the wrappers

Insist upon having the genuine DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS prepared by Fleming Bros of Pittsburgh Pa the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation
